

Department: Biology

Position: Instructor of Biology

Begin Date: August 2020

Description:

The Department of Biology at Southern Arkansas University invites applicants for a non-tenure track position of Instructor of Biology. This position begins August 2020.

Duties:

Teach 15 hours of introductory undergraduate courses split between lectures and laboratories; courses may include, among others, Introduction to Biology and labs (non-majors), Microbiology for Nursing and Allied Health and labs (non-majors) Anatomy and Physiology labs and potentially some online sections of these and other classes; demonstrate the ability to engage students from across all majors and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

At least a Master's degree in any area of Biology; previous teaching experience preferred; excellent written and oral communication skills. All SAU faculty and staff demonstrate a commitment to inclusion and diversity of the University community and excellence in interpersonal behaviors and effective collaboration with colleagues. Joining the SAU family requires a commitment to our culture of Continuous Quality Improvement.

Application Process:

Applicants should send a letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy; curriculum vitae, transcripts, and the contact information of three (3) references to HR@saumag.edu or the Office of Human Resources, Southern Arkansas University, 100 E. University, MSC 9288, Magnolia, AR 71753. AA/EOE. Non-listed references may be contacted. Full consideration will be given to applications received by February 15, 2020.